Scholarship Overview

Each year, The Institutes offer scholarships for the CPCU designation program as a way to give back to the industry and encourage the pursuit of professional development. 20 of those scholarships are reserved for full-time students. This scholarship covers the cost of:

- CPCU study material (print and online)
- CPCU exam fees
- Matriculation
- Waiver fees (for qualifying external coursework)

Scholarship Nominee Qualifications

Each institution can select up to five applicants for the CPCU Designation Scholarship. Applicants must:

- Be a full-time undergraduate student, majoring or interested in insurance, risk management, actuarial science, finance, or related field of study, and not employed in the industry
- Be nominated by the department chair or college dean
- Have a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher
- Be able to complete the CPCU program within three years of receiving the scholarship

Required Materials

- Complete Application
- Letter of Recommendation (1 letter from department chair or college dean is required)
- Personal Statement (Why do you want to obtain the CPCU designation?)

To Apply

Applicants must complete and submit the online college student application.

Additional Details

Scholarships are awarded on a first-come, first-granted basis, so do not wait to submit your nominations!

About The Institutes

The Institutes are a global not-for-profit comprised of diverse affiliates that educate, elevate, and connect people in the essential disciplines of risk management and insurance.

About The CPCU Designation

The CPCU designation is the premier professional designation in property-casualty insurance and teaches individuals how to meet the changes and challenges of a demanding risk management and insurance marketplace with confidence and professionalism.

More than 70,000 professionals, including claims adjusters, underwriters, risk managers, brokers, agents, and regulators, have earned the CPCU designation.